Did you know?

In February 1776, Henry Knox completed the 300 mile transport of 59 heavy cannons from Fort Ticonderoga to Boston. This icy winter mission allowed Washington to force the British out of the city just weeks later.

Many of Brookfield's early families — including the Whisconiers, Merwins, and Hawleys — served in the Continental Army and local militias during the Revolution.

Did you know?

In March 1776, George Washington permitted the reenlistment of Black soldiers, leading to some of the first integrated military units in U.S. history. Companies were at full strength and on alert due to British activity along the coast. Brookfield's original 18th-century meeting house stood along present-day Whisconier Road and served as the center of community life during and after the Revolution.

Did you know?

A British cannonball is still embedded in the corner post of Keeler Tavern today.

By the late 1700s, Brookfield's Still River powered sawmills, gristmills, and fulling mills that helped supply nearby towns with lumber, meal, and textiles.

A Message from the Publishers

We are proud to send to you our 4th Edition of the Town Calendar!

For over 30 years, this FREE daily resource guide has been a gift from local businesses to each home in town. We are a small, local, family business, and we feel so fortunate to showcase so many wonderful local businesses in this, our 2026 edition!

Inside you will find an extensive listing of special events, school schedules, local phone numbers, town meetings and other activities. You will also find promotions, and valuable offers from restaurants, merchants, and personal and home services, as well as information about local businesses.

To access the calendar and all of the latest events and coupons in the area, go to www.CommunityStroll.com, and sign up for our weekly email newsletter.

Please support our sponsors with your business. It is only through their generosity that we can provide you with the Calendar free of charge!

#ShopLocal #DineLocal #EnjoyLocal #SpendLocal

Sincerely, Christine, David & Sean
