Did you know?

In February 1776, Henry Knox completed the 300 mile transport of 59 heavy cannons from Fort Ticonderoga to Boston. This icy winter mission allowed Washington to force the British out of the city just weeks later.

On April 26, 1777, British troops burned Danbury's Patriot supplies and destroyed homes, barns, and storehouses — triggering battles in Ridgefield the next day.

Did you know?
 In March 1776, George Washington permitted the reenlistment of Black soldiers, leading to some of the first integrated military units in U.S. history. Companies were at full strength and on alert due to British activity along the coast. After the 1777 raid, Continental troops regrouped in Danbury, including units that later marched under America's first official Stars and Stripes flag adopted in June 1777.

Did you know?

On August 27, 1776, the largest battle of the Revolutionary War, the Battle of Long Island (Battle of Brooklyn) nearly destroyed the Continental Army.

Long before it was the Danbury Fair Mall, this site was home to the Great Danbury State Fair. In 1910, crowds packed the fairgrounds to watch a silk hot-air balloon being inflated for an ascension — one of the highflying attractions that made Danbury Fair famous across New England.

A Message from the Publishers

We are proud to send to you our 4th Edition of the Town Calendar!

For over 30 years, this FREE daily resource guide has been a gift from local businesses to each home in town. We are a small, local, family business, and we feel so fortunate to showcase so many wonderful local businesses in this, our 2026 edition!

Inside you will find an extensive listing of special events, school schedules, local phone numbers, town meetings and other activities. You will also find promotions, and valuable offers from restaurants, merchants, and personal and home services, as well as information about local businesses.

To access the calendar and all of the latest events and coupons in the area, go to www.CommunityStroll.com, and sign up for our weekly email newsletter.

Please support our sponsors with your business. It is only through their generosity that we can provide you with the Calendar free of charge!

#ShopLocal #DineLocal #EnjoyLocal #SpendLocal

Sincerely, Christine, David & Sean
