TOWN LINE
HARDWARE
SUDBURY / WAYLAND LINE

84 Boston Post Rd • Rt. 20
Sudbury, MA
978-443-2112
townlinehardware.com

A 250th anniversary is the semiquincentennial.

The area occupied by present-day Sudbury and nearby towns was known to Indigenous people as Musketaquid, which is Algonquin for "grassy plain" or "place where the water flows through the grasses".

The Warren Clock Company, later Telechron, was based in Ashland from 1912 to 1992. Ashland's nickname is Clocktown.

Opened in 1951, Shoppers' World in Framingham was the first regional shopping mall east of the Rockies and the second in the country.

In 1846, 1,666 acres of Holliston was ceded to form part of the Town of Ashland.

John Dickman, farmer and teamster from Hopkinton, was a member of the Sons of Liberty and took part in the Boston Tea Party.

Natick is the birthplace of modern baseball and the site of the first baseball factory in the United States.

From 1955 to 1974 Wayland housed a Nike missile base on Oxbow Road —one of only three Boston-area sites.

Attention Community Organizations

The Town Planner Calendar can help your non-profit organization or government agency to promote your events at no cost to you. The Calendar is delivered free of charge in our service area, and 75% of households receiving it hang and use it throughout the year. Consumers tell us that being informed about community events is one of the primary reasons they rely on the Town Planner Calendar. If your organization has activities such as local elections, celebrations, concerts, fairs, library, club or cultural events scheduled for 2026 or 2027, we would like to include them on a space-available basis in print, and in our online calendar. Please email your scheduled events to magerman@townplanner.com.

Sponsorship opportunities for the Year 2027 Edition of the Town Planner® are limited!

For more information, please contact:

Eric Magerman
Metrowest Town Planner

ATTENTION PHOTOGRAPHERS Amateur or Professional

We invite you to submit your color photographs for possible use in next year's issue. We are interested in images of local scenery, events, activities and landmarks during all seasons of the year. Photos must adhere to specific guidelines for resolution and size. If you are interested in submitting photos, please email magerman@townplanner.com.
