April 28th, 2015

I was somewhat skeptical about how Town Planner could help my business. After discussing the concepts with the Town Planner representative I agreed to place an ad in the publication. The results have greatly exceeded my expectations as the promotion has brought in both new clients and created higher sales from existing customers.

I will certainly be looking forward to using Town Planner as an integral component of my overall marketing plans in the future as I have found it to be a very efficient and effective marketing tool.
