

As a mortgage broker who runs his own business, I am constantly monitoring my bottom line. As a result, any investment in my business must have immediate positive return on my investment.

The Town Planner is such an investment.

I was extremely hesitant to advertise with Scott in the Town Planner. Advertising in Calendars was not my first choice to spend my marketing dollars.

After working with Scott and seeing the opportunity to be "On Display Everyday" in front of family decision makers, my core market was worth the gamble.
