Dear Joyce,

The Town Planner has been one of the best advertising investments that I have made in the young life of my business.

As soon as the calendars hit the shelves, I got hits on my web site and calls. Even during the months when my ad is not listed I get calls and emails. It's great! The ad has paid for itself and I definitely recommend this as an effective, cost effective way to promote your business and give your business great community visibility.
