Coffee Roasters & Tea Traders®

Carol,

One of the more challenging aspects of my business is finding an effective method to draw local clientele to the shop. We had tried a number of alternatives that just did not generate any new customers. I found that Town Planner created a greater response than any other advertising we had utilized and I have seen a clear upswing in the local community awareness in regard to House of Coffee and the products we have available for purchase.

Many thanks for your help.

Sincerely,

Chris Wolfe
