To Whom It May Concern:

I highly recommend Town Planner calendar as an advertising partner. I track the results of all my coupon offers and the Town Planner has more than paid for itself. Each month it has one of the most consistent redemption rates. This was my first year participating and I will be renewing for next year.

Marlene Smitchger has been very professional and efficient in meeting all my needs. She has a good product and is easy to work with. My overall impression and results are very positive.

Sincerely,

Gavin McCaleb
