Dear Patricia:

Thank you for introducing me to the Grayslake Town Planner Calendar. In my opinion it is the best advertising avenue for my business. It is an avenue to reach residents who become new customers.

In the past 3 years, I've had customers bring in their calendars to show me my ad. They are so grateful that they can easily find my phone number and location to pass along to friends and family members. What a great PR resource.

I now have a customer base that refers me to others who need my services. It is a win-win for everyone.

Thanks,
