

VINEYARD SERVICES

April 1, 2012

The Town Planner Calendar has paid for itself and then some and it's still early in the year! Within two weeks of the Calendar's distribution I received a call for an estimate for a kitchen remodel. Soon after finishing the client's kitchen, the client called again to request an estimate for an even larger job! What a great start to the year!

Mike and Scott have been great – not only do I get exposure in the Calendar, but they have also personally provided me with leads that have developed into additional projects.

We look forward to an even larger sponsorship next year!
