It works! Or I wouldn't do it. This is my third year in the Town Planner. I constantly get new clients and the calendar continues to be an excellent reminder for them to get work done, all year long, since it is on display during all seasons. My wife continues to display it in our home and uses it all the time – for looking up activities our community has.

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Greg Winters". The signature is fluid and stylized, with a long horizontal flourish extending from the end.
