It is with great pleasure that I recommend The Town Planner. I have worked with the Town Planner for the past year. They are a sponsor of the Vito Tocco Anal Cancer Foundation. The work that was done in their calendar to help promote our foundation was an excellent job.

Stella Ciancio, Publisher/Owner of The Town Planner displays a high degree of integrity, responsibility, and ambition. She believes in working with the community and her city.

The Town Planner would be an asset to any organization or business to help promote, and I am happy to give this company my wholehearted endorsement.

Sincerely,

Nancy DeSantis
