

Dear Joyce,

I wanted to thank you for contacting me and encouraging me to advertise in the 2008 West Sacramento Town Planner. I was very skeptical at first because I had purchased some pretty expensive ad space and never received one phone call. When we first spoke, I was at a point in life when I was just trying to keep up. I had returned to work after being off for 6 months with my son and really unsure if I was going to continue trying to build my Pampered Chef business. I appreciate you taking a genuine interest in me and asking me to give the Town Planner a try.

From my Town Planner ad, I have received numerous phone calls and signed a new consultant in February. Trying to figure out the best way to get your name in front of people in direct sales can be difficult, but I'm so thankful that I found the Town Planner. It was money well spent. If there are other people in direct sales looking for ways to get in front of people, the Town Planner is the answer.

Thank you for helping me find the renewed energy I needed in order to refocus my life and business. I'm looking forward to many years of success working together!

Many Thanks,

Christy R. Noble
