As a small business we have to be very careful how we spend our limited ad dollars. I think the Town Planner is a good value in advertising because it keeps your name in front of potential customers throughout the year. With today's hectic lifestyle, I think most households will find this local calendar to be a valuable planning tool... something most people will probably look at nearly everyday.

We've been in business now for 20 years and I think the Town Planner is one of the best ideas I've seen. We were very pleased with the response we got from the first publication and have decided to repeat this year and increase our coverage to include Mineral County.

Sincerely,

Greg Knotts
