“Joyce Carter is an amazing business owner who understands the challenges and opportunities that other business people face and offers them the very best way to reach out to current and potential clients. Joyce created my first ad in the Town Planner and that has proven to be so successful that I brought another company to also advertise with Joyce and I have signed up for an additional year. I see the Town Planner calender in many of my clients homes and it is the best advertising investment I could have ever made. Joyce is very thoughtful, creative, and personable, plus she is an expert and will help you to achieve more from your business. Yes, I will be in the top right hand corner of every month this year! Thank you, Joyce!”
